2010 Convention Program Application

All those who attend Adventures In Stamping will receive a convention program booklet upon entering the show. This is an excellent marketing opportunity to attract more people to your exhibit area and encourage sales. Even if you choose not to exhibit you can purchase advertising in our program booklet to remind potential customers of your products.

Please supply camera-ready black and white art (or we will prepare professional camera-ready art for $100.00 per ad).
